2008 College Exposure Shootout

November 2, 2008

Divisions: Grades 7–8 and Grades 9–Prep Grads

Dear Student Athlete:

If college basketball is your dream, then you need exposure to college coaches and scouts. The IBN Shootouts are your opportunity to play against outstanding national talent while being evaluated for your college potential. The Shootouts are designed to let players show what they can do from their potential college playing position. If you feel that your exposure to college recruiters has been poor, then you need to sign up today for the Shootouts! At the Shootouts, you will play on a team in three games each day. Each player will be evaluated by Reg Tisdale and his Hoop Scoop's Scouting Service Staff. All participants will be featured in a Performance Summary report that is listed in The Showcase Players Section of INBnews.com.

Shootout Event Info and Player Fee

Cost: Pre-Registration: $125. Walk Up Fee (upon availability) $150 each day. No other college exposure event offers three games in one day and a subsequent player evaluation for college coaches.

Site: Christian Academy
2801 Grant Line Road
New Albany, Indiana 47150

Registration: 10:00am – 11:00am

Games Played: 11:30am – 7:00pm

Please watch discussion boards for updates and changes.

Co-Directors

Reg Tisdale founded Indiana Basketball News in 1997 as a scouting service to colleges and universities. A total of 457 Mens' College Basketball programs have relied on IBN for their recruiting information. IBN went online in January 2000 at inbnews.com. Currently, the website is averaging 1,400,000 visitors per month.

Hoop Scoop's Editor and Publisher, Clark Francis, has been America's most highly regarded National Talent Scout since 1985. Francis hosts a weekly radio show and has been a featured Prep Editor of USA Today and the Sporting News.

Clinician

Indiana's 1993 Mr. Basketball, Sherron Wilkerson, will teach advanced scoring moves, including: Creating space off the dribble, getting to the basket, and many more moves he learned as a starting Guard at Indiana University from 1993–1995 and as a 10 year European Professional.
